07:30 a.m. Pick up from your hotel in Bangkok and take a journey back through the old time.

09:30 a.m. Stop en route at a 100 year old canal side market Talad Klong Suan, the traditional market on the banks of Prawet Burirom Canal that's being going for more than a century spreading over Samut Prakhan Province and Chachoengsao Province, where you will be impresses with their simple lifestyle.

Walking through the market you can see and feel the rural way of life of olden Thailand. Klongsuan Market offers not only the nostalgic ambience of Thailand's past, but also charming wooden shop houses selling vintage items and tasty local foods.

10:45 a.m. Our next stop is to Wat Saman Rattanaram where you can see The World's Largest Giant Reclining Ganesha. It is 16 meters high and 22 meters long. Ganesha is a Hindu deity and has an elephant head and four arms.

There are thirty two popular iconographic forms of Ganesha and all of them can be seen around the base of this Reclining Ganesha.

This is an interesting mix of Religion. It doesn't like the other temples in Thailand. There're a lot of greatest god of all and a lot of products here such as food, souvenirs, and amulets.

Back to the vehicle and get cool bottled water and refreshing towel from our guide to clean-up your sweat.

12:30 p.m. We will take lunch a delicious meal will be set up at a local restaurant.

01:45 p.m. Then take a leisure boat trip along Bang Pakong River around Koh Lad. Enjoy the boat slow goes, enjoy the peaceful atmosphere with greenery and riverside life on both sides, observing people on the river bank, an agriculture homeland of Chacherngsao.

A boat tour on the Bang Pakong River departs from the pier of local restaurant while visitors can admire the nature and views on the river banks, as well as houses in the Thai lifestyle. Interesting and important places that visitors can see along the boat trip.

02:45 p.m. Disembark at Wat Po Bangkla. Continue to meet Giant Golden-crowned Flying Fox , Fruit Bat, World's Largest Bat and Endangered. The trees within this peaceful temple are the home for thousands of fruit bats. During the day, they cling upside down off the branches of the trees, but at dark, they wake and leave to search for food.

03:00 p.m. Continue to Wat Paknam Jolo. This is believed to be the only temple in Thailand that they have painted gold. When you arrive at the temple is advisable to walk around the golden chapel first as there is so much to see and take in. Don't forget to go inside as it is just as beautiful on the inside.

03:30 p.m. Our final stop in Chachoengsao is Muban Namtan Sot, the palm sap village and the sole production source of ready-to-drink palm sap and taste local palm juice in the East.
